

Local News

Ainsworth Star Journal
Ainsworth, Nebraska, US

Wednesday, November 1, 2023
Page 4, Section: NEWS
273 words, 20in² in size
1,001 circulation

Local News

Jim Marsh (Carol Woods' brother), pooches and Carol Woods returned to Ainsworth this past Monday, October 23rd, from an awesome site seeing vacation and visiting relatives and friends!

Places visited were Carlsbad Cavern, NM; Ft. Bliss, El Paso, TX, where their Dad, Mervin Marsh received basic training before being shipped to the European Theater and invasions of WWII.

In Sierra Vista, AZ, they had breakfast with former Ainsworthites - Donna Hughes and Evelyn Harris. Laura Hughes (their mother) age 101, living in Assisted Living, was visited. Laura attended rural Brown County school District 11 with Jim and Carol's mother, Doris Marsh. Laura showed us her painting done by artist, Lola Sawle, great-aunt of Jim and Carol.

Tombstone, AZ (Wyatt Earp country), historical museum and western enactment/shoot-out were seen. Continuing to Tucson, AZ, the Saguaro National Park and gigantic cacti were enjoyed! Phoenix - the Desert Botanical Gardens and Butterfly Garden. Niece Beth Ann was seen in Tempe. They were involved with a rehearsal/wedding and unable to see Stephen at Sedona, AZ gorgeous red rock. In this area ancient Indian Cliff dwellings were seen. Nephew, Matthew joined us in this adventure, eating at Johnny Rockets Cafe and on to Montezuma Well and more cliff dwellings.

Kanab, UTk site of filming Gunsmoke series, also Lone Ranger.

Zion National Park with beautiful steep red rock cliffs rising from the valley and Bryce Canyon, elevation 9,115 - looking down into gorgeous red formations.

Beautiful aspen trees and snow in Colorado.

Returning to Nebraska, Jim and Carol attended the Nebraska Cornhusker game with Northwestern and a win. Tailgated at Ag Campus attended with our invitation.